

SAVE THE DATE OCTOBER 14 & 15, 2011

SAVE THE DATE for this informative children's mental health conference and join others in learning more about mental health in our schools and community.

Mark your calendars for this event!

WHAT: Madison Cares Mental Health Summit 2011:
Communities and Schools Caring Together

WHEN: October 14, 1-5pm, October 15, 8-5pm

WHERE: Madison High School, 2300 University Blvd.
Rexburg Idaho 83440

WHO: Youth, Parents, Providers, School Personnel,
Advocates, Community Members, Juvenile Justice

Topics to Be Covered:

- Suicide Awareness
- Cutting/Self-Injury
- Substance Abuse
- Juvenile Justice
- Anxiety
- ADHD
- PBIS (Positive Behavior Interventions and Supports)
- Early Childhood Mental Health
- DBT (Dialectical Behavior Therapy)

Madison Cares Mental Health Summit 2011: Communities and Schools Caring Together respectful. ready. responsible.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Dr. Thomas Joiner

Thomas Joiner is an American academic psychologist and leading expert on suicide. He is a professor of psychology at Florida State University and is the author of "Why People Die by Suicide."

Highlights of the conference also include:

- Workshops on a broad range of children's mental health issues
- Various tracks for parents, youth, providers and educators
- Friday night activity
- CEU's and education credits available

Sponsors: Madison CARES, Madison School District, SPAN Idaho, Madison County Community Council

Registration information coming in August! Contact madisoncares@gmail.com or Madison School District at 359-3300 for more information.